

Dear Bible Reader,

One of the best habits you can ever develop is to read the Bible every day. Whether you are using this schedule to read through the Bible once again after many times, or you are reading through God's Word for the very first time, I know that you will find the journey rewarding if you approach this daily exercise with a heart for God and His Word. Perhaps some who are not yet believers in Christ will use this schedule to systematically discover what the Bible has to say about God and to see if the case for Christianity is truly made therein. Paul taught, "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God" (Romans 10:17).

THE BIBLE IS OUR. . .

spiritual food

Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: for I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts (Jeremiah 15:16).

guide for life

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path (Psalm 119:105).

source of truth

Thy word is true from the beginning; and every one of thy righteous judgments endureth for ever (Psalm 119:160).

source of discipline

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness (2 Timothy 3:16).

I trust that you will find the Scriptures to be all of these and more in your life during the coming year!

In Christ,

James D. Maxwell III

- o Read two Old Testament chapters every day of the year.
- o Read one Poetry chapter each weekday.
- o Read one New Testament chapter each weekday.

You will read four chapters each weekday and two chapters on Saturday and Sunday. One year's reading according to this schedule will take you through the entire Bible.

The readings are arranged on three convenient bookmarks to enable you to keep your place in each section. Just separate the bookmarks on the perforations. To aid your daily Bible reading, you will find the Bible Reading Schedule and the Scripture text for each day online at faith.edu/biblereading. Enjoy your journey through God's Word!
